

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Dear Sirs/Madams,

I am deeply concerned about the possibility of the FCC further loosening restrictions on the consolidation of ownership of media outlets. Just as anti-trust laws are important to the functioning of our economy, rules limiting the consolidation of media ownership are critical to the health of our democracy. Please remember that in your job at a public agency is look out for the good of the people at large and the well-being of our democracy. Please do not be overly swayed by the specific financial interests that would benefit from the relaxing of these rules -- you have a much bigger responsibility to uphold.
